

I am concerned about LPFM stations taking priority over regional and national service providers. Specifically, the radio station KLOVE is one that I listen to almost exclusively. It provides family oriented programming that my whole family can listen to. It would be a great loss if we were not able to receive this programming.

Thank you,
Steve Jacobsen